RUSH PLANS FOR OPENING ATLANTA RESERVE BANK

McAdoo Orders Bank Opened November 16 Instead of November 30

Secretary McAdoo's order that the Federal Reserve bank be opened on November 16, instead of November 30, has resulted in additional preparations for the opening of the Federal Reserve bank of Atlanta.

The directors of the bank will meet in Atlanta some day this week. The date, hour and place of meeting, however, have been kept secret, owing to the fact that the directors are afraid of being deluged with applications for shares if it was pointed out that they will have their hands full preparing to open the bank.

It is believed, however, that the date for the meeting will be held earlier. It is expected to arrive here during the week.

The meeting will determine the location of the Atlanta bank as well as other details of the opening. It is believed that by the end of the week the preparations will have been completed.

Local bankers seem to be pleased with Secretary McAdoo's order. The smaller reserve cities had all along been in favor of an early opening, and now that it came in the main from the large cities.

As previously announced, the opening of the bank means the additional circulation of $100,000,000 in Federal Reserve notes.

Somehow, however, the reserve turned out to be the new system.

New Banks Will Release More Than $400,000,000

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26.—Steps to set in motion the machinery of the twelve Federal Reserve banks under the new banking system, the opening of which will be officially by Secretary McAdoo on November 16, were being taken today by the Federal Reserve board. It was expressed that the opening of the reserve banks would go a long way toward relieving the pressure in the south brought on by the European war and be of assistance in the emergency situation throughout the country. Emergency conditions in the south have been the reason for the board to designate an early date for the opening of the reserve banks.

As an official statement, Secretary McAdoo has named the date for the beginning of the new system, and the reserve authority vested in him by the currency act said he had called a conference with the reserve board and because of the emergency situation in the south, believing that the banks will be of aid in that section and help the rest of the country. The directors and governors of the twelve reserve banks, at a meeting in Washington recently, voted against opening on November 16, and expressed their preference for November 30.

Secretary McAdoo made it evident by the federal government would not be to be by the Federal Reserve board, and the Treasury in reserve banks to help in the emergency situation.

BURGLAR STEALS $1,000 AFTER DESPERATE FIGHT

Joseph Ruben Seriously Slashed With Razor in Hands of a Negro

Joseph Ruben, of 236 East Fair street, is at the Grady hospital suffering from a number of wounds, the result of a Monday morning fight in his home with a burglar who had placed $1,000 in a drawer of the bedside.

As he entered the room with a revolver in his hand, the burglar, a negro, had rifled the room with a razor, and upon him flourishing a razor. They grappled.

FORMER ATLANTIAN DIES AT HOME IN BIRMINGHAM

Alonzo L. Jernigan Passed Away Saturday After Short Illness

The news has been received in Atlanta that Alonzo L. Jernigan, formerly of this city, died Saturday in Birmingham, Ala., after a short illness.

Mr. Jernigan lived here about twenty years ago. He had several relatives in the city, and many friends who will be deeply grieved by the death.

Surviving him are his widow and three children, Mrs. J. E. Van and Henry T. Jernigan, of Birmingham, and O. L. Jernigan, of Atlanta. He also leaves two brothers, P. B. Jernigan, of Atlanta, and J. Jernigan, of Birmingham.

Funeral services and interment took place in Birmingham Monday afternoon.

As an official statement, Secretary McAdoo has named the date for the beginning of the new system, and the reserve authority vested in him by the currency act said he had called a conference with the reserve board and because of the emergency situation in the south, believing that the banks will be of aid in that section and help the rest of the country. To Lecture Tuesday

DR. NEWELL D. HILLIS

DR. N. D. HILLIS WILL LECTURE HERE TUESDAY

"The America of Today and Tomorrow" Will Be Subject

Dr. Newell Dwight Hillis, pastor of Plymouth church, the most famous religious institution in America, will lecture Tuesday night at 8:30 o'clock at the auditorium on "The America of Today and Tomorrow." In this lecture, which will be the second number of the Atlanta lecture series, he will dwell on the future of the south.

His address will be a careful analysis of the south's resources and opportunities, and will prove the most significant public utterance here this winter.

Dr. Hillis is known, not only for his sermons and his lectures, but also for his writings. In speaking of him as an author, the London Times said: "Alone almost in modern living world, Newell Dwight Hillis provides not only ideas, but inspiration. For there is in all his books an atmosphere of nobility, the nobility of principle."

Dr. Hillis succeeded Dr. Leman Abbott, now editor of the Outlook, as pastor of Plymouth church. Dr. Abbott's predecessor was Henry Ward Beecher, America's most famous pulpit orator. But under the leadership of Dr. Hillis, Plymouth church has become stronger than ever.

Dr. Hillis is the pastor of either Dr. Abbott or Henry Ward Beecher.

EFFORT TO BE MADE TO REORGANIZE CHARITIES

Meeting Will Be Held Monday Afternoon in Council Chamber

All members of the Associated Charities of Atlanta who are not able to see the work of the organization end, will attend the called meeting at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon in the council chamber of city hall when the Associated Charities will have some effort to make to continue its function in a new and better way.

At the meeting, the general secretary will read his report, the directors will make their report, showing that the organization must depend on account of lack of funds, and the board will then resign in a body. The members will be asked to appoint a receiver to liquidate the association's affairs.

According to Linton C. Hopkins, one of the directors, the board has no plan whereby the work of the Associated Charities may be continued, but that some plan will be advanced and discussed at the meeting, in the general opinion among members who regard the organization charity work done away with in Atlanta and who have expressed the fear that hundreds of the city's poor people will be helpless to help themselves, a problem and a burden on the city.

It is for this reason that loyal Atlantians are urged to attend the meeting and set their wits to work to evolve some scheme by which these people may be helped; by which the subscription the public is willing to give for this work, may not be wholly lost.

There are designs and materials suitable for all the rooms of your home—some of the designs at once suggest their use in a little child's room while others you think of in connection with the family living room—and still others appeal to you as adapted for the dining room, and so on.

There are hundreds of smaller useful articles that can be made of Colonial Drapery Fabrics in designs and colors harmonizing with the draperies and furnishings.

GERMANS LOSE LIVE AIRSHIPS IN DARING BATTLE IN CLOUDS

One French Birdman Soars Above Kaiser's Aviators and Shoots Down Two Aeroplanes From Dizzy Heights

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Oct. 25.—According to the Paris correspondent of the Express five German aeroplanes were destroyed by the French on Saturday. Two Taubers were brought down at Rheims by a single French aviator, he says, who succeeded in getting to a higher altitude than the Germans and then fired on them from a revolver. Two other German "birds" were hit by the guns on a Tauber which was flying over the city of Rheims. A second Tauber was shot down on the east coast of France.

DIVERSITY OUR SALVATION.
Robert F. Maddox, former president of the Georgia Bankers' association and "Over three thousand banks throughout the south, the supply merchants, the press, the agricultural societies and all progressive farmers agree that in the diversification of crops lies the future prosperity of the south and that a radi-next year is the only practical plan to insure a fair price for this year's crop and guarantee a good price for the cotton crop of next year. It is believed that the south has now determined to take advantage of her great possibilities in the production of more grain, food and other products and hence, of less cotton.

"Fundamentally the financial conditions in the south just before the European war were never brighter, and if the plan proposed by the Atlanta chamber of commerce is carried out, and this now seems assured, the American mills and those of Europe will no longer hesi-

If there is an extra session of congress these measures have the right of way in the house. If there is no extra session until the first of December, they have the right of way then and will be the first for action.

It need it as perfectly safe for the senate to use a note similar to the warehouse note issued by the people, warehouse companies, and banks of men of Screven county. I showed one of these notes on the floor of the state Saturday, and no one considered them subject to tax."

Cotton Committee Has Already Begun Work
(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 25.—The special committee on cotton legislation, named by the house last before the adjournment of congress, met today to consider the situation in the south brought about by the European war. The resolution provided that this committee should make a thorough investigation of the subject and report possible measures for relief and in the cotton crisis by December 1. It designated Henry B. Grady and the other members are representatives Austin and Langley, Richard, Lever and Heflin, Democrats, and Charles W. Heflin, Progressive. Henry Grady was appointed on the committee, but said it would be impossible for him to serve until after the adjournment.

Nearly all the members of both houses of congress had left Washington today. Some southern senators and representatives, however, anxious to do what they could to expedite legislation to relieve the cotton states, remained in the city.

G. Adair Wins Golf Cup; Tenn. Has Visions of Football Championship

G. Adair Wins Cup Offered in Golf Tourney

Winner Defeated W. F. Spalding 4-3, in Final Match Yesterday—Tournament Has Proven Big Success and Will Be Repeated Annually

Defeating W. F. Spalding 4-3, George Adair proved the winner of the handsome cup offered in the big invitation golf tourney, staged by the Druid Hills Golf club, which came to a finish Sunday.

Spalding had earned the right to play Adair senior in the final round by defeating Perry Adair in a close match on Saturday. Spalding played superb golf against Perry, but his game was unequal to that of George Adair when the pair met. Adair was 1 up on the first nine holes, and the count stood the same for the second. In the afternoon he had increased this lead by one hole on the first nine, and he won the match by taking the fifteenth.

This tournament has proven a highly successful affair. In point of number of entries, it was the second largest tournament ever held in the south. The Druid Hills club has come in for praise without stint from players of other clubs in the city for the exemplary manner in which the tournament has been handled. No less has been the praise for the conditions of the course, fair greens and putting greens, for which the bulk of credit is due Willie Mann, the professional at the course. Druid Hills is casual at the moment. The Druid Hills is casual at the moment. The Druid Hills is casual at the moment.

Following are the winners of the different flights:

George Adair defeated W. F. Spalding for the tournament cup in the first flight 4-3.

C. V. Rainwater won the defeated eight, first flight cup, defeating A. Davidson 2-1.

R. P. Jones won the second flight cup, defeating L. D. Scott 5-4.

L. H. Beck defeated A. K. McDonald in the fourth flight 2-1.

G. A. Howell defeated F. Holland in the fourth flight 2-1.

Hunter Perry defeated T. P. Hinchman in the fifth flight 5-4.

P. T. May defeated C. T. Bachman in the sixth flight 2-1.

T. L. Cooper defeated C. L. Eliza in the seventh flight 2-1.

H. R. Caffee defeated E. R. Bridges in the eighth flight 2-1.

E. W. DeLany defeated E. C. Heinz in the ninth flight 5-4.

J. C. Lembo defeated V. R. Smith in the tenth flight 5-4.

J. C. Whately defeated C. T. Hopkins, Jr. in the eleventh flight 4-3.

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The most advanced type of aerial football ever witnessed on eastern golf courses furnished a sensational climax in Saturday's games.

Forward passes, lateral passes and field goals produced a series of startling upsets, unrequited on any one day in many years.

Yale eleven, believed by its adherents to be on the march for championship honors, fell before Washington and Princeton, an institution with an enrollment of 300 students.

All three touchdowns came directly as the result of forward passes or lateral passes. Harvard by a late minute rush in their game with Princeton, for a second time in a fortnight barely staved off defeat.

Weakness in the line, the lack of Logan, Mahan, Pennock, Hardwick and other regulars, the Crimson was completely outplayed and but for several fumbles at critical moments would have been decisively beaten.

In defeating Dartmouth, Princeton showed the most versatile attack and defense of the day in the east. Here also forward passes and field goals figured prominently, although the Tigers showed they could smash through the line and skirt the ends when necessary.

For a second time this season a western eleven was crushed by an eastern team, when Syracuse completely outplayed Michigan. This game was almost devoid of open play, the Wolverines presumably saving any sensational passing efforts for their game with Harvard next Saturday.

Forward passing was responsible for the single touchdown by which Pennsylvania defeated Carolina.

Dartmouth school team, of Rome, swamped the Donald Fraser eleven Saturday at Decatur by a score of 23 to 0.

At no time was Donald Fraser in danger of scoring, and they could not withstand the Romans varied attack.

Four touchdowns were made in the first quarter, after which Dartmouth scored a touchdown on the first play of the game and the other three came in rapid order.

This is the first game of the year in which Dartmouth has been in her full strength in the field, being badly crippled when she lost to Chattanooga High school, 2 to 6, one week ago in Chattanooga.

Dartmouth plays Georgia Military academy on November 7 and a great deal of interest is being shown in the coming struggle.

THE SPORTLIGHT BY GRANTLAND RICE

"We reached the top," said Manager Stallings, "by always keeping in the game."

Which is the answer, first and last, And fore and aft, and all the time; Berce of any mystic cast From pallid prose or rhinal rhyme; Berce of any vague reply Or dove escosced beneath the lid, To show the essence of the why, But where the grinding lid is wrought Just as a bit of common sense.

How did the few who've reached the crest, In any clime or any age, Move out against the final test And carve their name upon the Page? Not by a spurt or any bluff The rugged few fought on to fame; You know the answer well enough: "By always keeping in the game."

There is no moral hitched to this— No dull philosophy to shoot; But in the daily bit or miss It has its place amid the loot; Not in the way of lofty thought To hold the reader in suspense, But where the grinding lid is wrought Just as a bit of common sense.

The finest tribute to the Braves is not that they kept eternally in the game against the Athletics, but that they insisted on keeping in the game when they were an unkempt last in their own league.

"What," queries a reader, "do you think of western football against eastern after the Notre Dame-Yale game?"

We have never tried to compare any feature save western and eastern systems of attack. While Yale smashed Notre Dame, she did so with as fine a variety of open play as any one would want to see. Certainly Yale eleven, under the old set, soggy system, would have never won in any such score—if at all.

Considering what Harvard's second crew did at Henley, why not shoot Harvard's second eleven against Michigan, Yale or Princeton if the regulars begin to get bumped a bit and a trifle harassed?

Count that day lost Whose sporting line paraded See not the Yankees sold Or H. Zim traded.

"In drop kicking," queries H. F. D., "would you look at the football or the goal posts?"

If we were doing said drop kicking we'd keep about nine-tenths of our vision on the tackle or guard charging through to smear us against the sod.

For that matter, we've seen two boxers battle and swing away without looking at each other. Both were trying to count the house.

When Sam Langford swung that last one against Gunboat Smith's frontpiece the white heavyweight probably felt a deep regret that he hadn't remained in England and taken his chance against a Zeppelin bomb. There's always a chance to duck from under a Zeppelin bomb—if you see it first.

Baseball is now in such a deplorable condition that only about forty-seven different parties are trying to purchase the Cubs and Yankees.

"McGraw will take fifty-two players south to Marlin," says an exchange. Many are called, but few get up.

SHARP SPORT JABS

Hank O'Day and a few other big league managers know something about that river of doubt.

Jim Scott pitched for a reform school team. Suggest they send the whole White Sox team there.

What is a winter baseball story without a denial the next day?

They put Johnny Evers at the head of a parade in Troy, N. Y. "He's a devil in his home town."

Johnny Kling lost a billiard match. Probably wasn't anything but.

Vision of Title Dances Before Tennessee Boys

Knoxville Eleven Is Now Priming for Game With Commodores on Nov. 7. Only Vandy and Sewanee Stand Between Them and S. I. A. A. Championship

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 26.—On Vanderbilt, in the slogan which is ringing on the campus of the University of Tennessee today, following the defeat of the "thin red line" representing the University of Alabama on Saturday. The Commodores are next, and the local boys believe that after many years of patient labor and waiting, they are due to conquer the hosts of Michigan.

Next Saturday the Volunteers tackle the University of Chattanooga, but this will be hardly more than a practice game for Coach Cleveland's men.

The team put up a great game against Alabama Saturday, and there is little wonder that the student body is in ecstasies over the outcome. Only once before within the history of football has the Commodores been next, and they are due to conquer the hosts of Michigan.

TRAILING THE NEWS By INNIS BROWN

Saturday brought its quota of surprises on the gridiron. Here in the south nothing very startling occurred, however. Possibly the most notable victory under the conditions was that of Tennessee over Alabama. The Volunteers won by a decisive score, making the second time within the gridiron history of the two teams that such a thing has happened. The victory was clinched by a two-touchdown margin, which makes it clean-cut enough to show it was earned.

It was rather unfortunate that the loss of the winners, and Poplin, of the latter, were not in the game. The former was out because of injuries, while the latter was ruled out under protest. Doubtless that is the reason why Alabama was not that of Saturday's Tennessee. Rainey is undoubtedly the star of the team. He is a very good player, and the team is very good. The team is very good. The team is very good.

The other big surprise of the night was the triumph of Syracuse over Michigan. The Big Orange team trounced the Wolverines decisively. No doubt, the absence of Tommy Huggitt had much to do with the result, but it is doubtful if his presence would have reversed the count. With Huggitt lucky to get a draw and Michigan's victory would hardly be the rationing event that was anticipated earlier in the season. Doubtless Princeton was the victor of the game between the Tigers and Syracuse a short time ago.

In the west, the big surprise of the night was furnished by Nebraska. The Cornhuskers proceeded to use their off of the Michigan Aggies after the latter had fought Michigan about a standstill the week before, losing a score of 3 to 6. No doubt, the Aggies held their opponents too cheaply, at the same time, the Nebraska team have put up a formidable game to be the big score that they did.

The University of Chicago refused to permit football team to spend an eastern game because it interfered with study. This is enlightening, no idea of a university was for purpose.

This is the season of the year when a get three runs on any campus.

Yale's victory analyzed seems to triumph for "Eastern Football" in the Camp cannot see anything in the way from a point ten miles off Cape Cod.

Mighty like drawing aces to jam a jimmy pipe brimful or roll up a makin' cigarette with Prince Albert, then make fire with a match! Such smokings! Yes, sir, the kind you can draw to all day and all night and have a lot of fun all the time!

Prince Albert came into the game five years ago a little stranger in a big land, but it was cut for a square deal, and today it is the one best bet of men everywhere who play fair with their tongues and want fair play—with all the cards on the mahogany! Catch the thought?

Prince Albert

is built like a thoroughbred. It won't kick, it won't bite, it won't parch! That's because it is made by the world-famous patented process that cuts out the kick and the bite and the parch! No other tobacco ever was or can be today anywhere near like Prince Albert!

You can raise right here—and clean the table!—that Prince Albert will win with you because it's true blue by any way you play it! Costs a dime to sit in and find out first-hand that all we claim for Prince Albert is case cards—signed, sealed, delivered—with the reputation of this great business right behind every grain of tobacco! Does that listen?

MULHOLLAND PREDICTS BIG BUSINESS BOOM

Conditions Better Than Generally Believed, Says Head of the Rotarians

Praise for the buy-america movement and the made-in-America movement, predictions that this country would enter an unparalleled era of prosperity after the war, and a message of optimism to Rotarians and citizens everywhere was voiced Monday morning by Frank Mulholland, president of the International Association of Rotary Clubs, who is in Atlanta on his way to the Rotary convention in Jacksonville, Fla. Mr. Mulholland is on the last stage of a three-month tour of the east, the middle west and the south, during which he says he has seen glowing evidence that business conditions are far better than they are generally thought to be.

He has visited Louisville, Nashville, Montgomery, Mobile, Birmingham and Atlanta on his southern trip, all within the past few days, and in each of these cities, he says, men are pulling together to successfully combat any existing impression of hard times.

"All we have to do," declared Mr. Mulholland, "is to sit steady and believe we are prosperous and we will be. While distress over the cotton situation is of course evident in the south, this is decreasing every day.

"The good effects of the buy-america movement are talked of all over the country. In the north and in the east merchants are buying bales with the same enthusiasm that they are being bought in the south.

"The made-in-America movement is another good thing. At a recent convention of silk manufacturers I attended at Paterson, N. J., I discovered that 80 per cent of the silk of the world is made in this country, although in the past much of it has been fished off by the public as imported goods.

"But since the war started, American manufacturers are stamping their goods with the place where they are manufactured, so that this fraud will not continue, and Americans will have every opportunity for patronizing home industries.

"I think the announcement that England will soon receive cotton shipments, self-evident evidence of improving conditions. As a matter of fact, it was inevitable that this would come to pass. The mills in Great Britain are operated largely by women and children, and although this has been a labor problem a terrible terror over there, at the same time it accrues to the good of the south now, for these mills can go right on operating despite the war, receiving shipments from America, and taking many millions of bales off the market.

Mr. Mulholland declared that with the end of the war, the prosperity of this country would strike a tide which would reach a point never before equaled. He predicted that six months after the war was over America would be richer than even the most optimistic hope.

Mr. Mulholland, with Louis K. Webb, president of the Louisville Rotary club, and Atlanta Rotarians made an automobile tour of the city Monday, with luncheon at the Capital City club. He will be the guest of honor at a Rotary banquet at the Hotel Winfree's new room Monday night.

Drinks Fifteen Pints Of Blind Tiger Liquor And Dies at Finish

(Special Dispatch to The Journal.) PORT GAINES, Ga., Oct. 26.—After drinking fifteen pints of blind tiger liquor, one right after the other, Ben Hickman, who lives in Alabama, died Sunday morning.

Mr. Hickman got his liquor Saturday afternoon. He began on the first pint early in the evening, finished by midnight, and had disposed of the last drop shortly before noon, when he breathed his last. He leaves a wife and nine children.

YOUTH ON PROBATION IS AGAIN LOCKED UP

William Prater, a white youth who lives at 24 Portress avenue and has been on probation several weeks for robbing gas meters, was caught breaking into a neighbor's house Monday morning by Call officer Tom Watson.

Watson received a hurry call about 11 o'clock from people in the neighborhood of 24 Portress avenue, who said a man was breaking into that house in the absence of the owners. Watson arrived there just in time to catch Prater coming out.

Prater was taken to the police station and locked up.

TO STUDY BUSINESS CONDITIONS IN SOUTH

Representatives of National Chamber of Commerce Will Arrive Thursday

The board of directors and officers of the chamber of commerce of the United States, representing 200,000 of the leading business men of America, will arrive Thursday morning and devote the day to a study of the industrial, educational development of the city.

The chamber of commerce is the national federation of the commercial organizations of America, uniting the business men of forty-seven states and having branches in Paris, Berlin and Constantinople. Though little more than two years have elapsed since its inception, it is the largest body of its kind, and the only national body capable of voicing the sentiment of commerce as a whole when questions affecting national commerce are up for consideration.

For personal observation of present conditions in the south, and to come more closely in touch with its member, in this section, the directors are making their first tour of the south.

Formal opening of the handsome auditorium of the new First Church of Christ, Scientist, at Peachtree and Fifteenth streets, will be held Tuesday night at 8 o'clock.

Bliss Knapp, of Boston, one of the board of lecturers of the mother church, will deliver an address on "Christian Science." This will be the initiatory service held in the auditorium.

The new building is one of the handsomest in the city and commands the entrance to Anley park. It is of brick and stone and was erected at a cost of about $120,000.

Wednesday night an experience meeting will be held at the church and regular services will start Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

NEGRO FARM HAND KILLS MADISON COUNTY MAN

COMER, Ga., Oct. 26.—Julian Lester, a negro farm hand, shot and killed Fayette Simmons, a young white man, at an early hour Sunday. Saturday night

When business depression strikes the country, as is caused in America, at present, because of the European war—incomes dwindle—earning capacities decrease—it often becomes a problem to make both ends meet.

We are busy as bees showing and selling homes on our DIVIDED PAYMENT Plan, with no mortgage to assume. Our phones are ringing—we're rushed in showing, and SELLING homes on our DIVIDED PAYMENT Plan. We SURE are busy. We will SELL you a home, on terms as easy as though you were paying rent.

People who OWN their homes now, in these days of business depression, are happy that they were far-sighted enough to BUY instead of renting.

People who are renting—STOP paying rent. They should BUY a home—at once—on our DIVIDED PAYMENT Plan! BUYING a home, on the DIVIDED PAYMENT Plan, is like SAVING your money—it is saving it, for you INVEST it in a home, which you occupy while paying for it—and the property is increasing in value constantly.

Phone us or call at our office—and we tell you about several handsome homes which we will SELL for $100 down and as little as $25 a month—no mortgage to assume. These homes are in Capitol View—inside of Atlanta's city limits—only an 18-minute street car ride from the postoffice. Capitol View has grown into a well-developed and very desirable residential section! Get in touch with us—at once. Houses here are selling rapidly!
